"Red Button Weekend" at Gateshead Parish: Abortion

Living in the secular world of today presents Catholics with many challenging conversations. This weekend will focus on the controversial "Red Button" topic of abortion. We will aim to understand the position of the other side, develop our knowledge of the moral standpoint at risk, and come away with a better ability to engage in dialogue.

We will be staying at the Hotel Express NE8 1AF, if you are coming from further away.
