

Indifferentism

Infidel

Absolute : rejection of man's dependence on a personal creator

- atheism
- materialism
- pantheism
- agnosticism

sed contra

- the existence of God the Creator can be shown by reason to be true.

Restricted : religion is necessary/useful, but not any religion in particular

- all religions are equally worthy and profitable
- absolute truth is unknowable
- it's the intention that counts

sed contra

- God favours His religion, which is all true in doctrine and all good in morals. This is the Catholic religion.

Liberal

Pan-Christian : all Christian religions are efficacious for salvation

- rationalism in religion and philosophy
- naturalism (denial of the supernatural)
